Gentlemen:-

To-day I received your letter stating that I had been elected to membership in your organization which pleased me greatly.

I am enclosing a check for five dollars for Associate Membership dues for 1921.

Will you also kindly let me know how much a Bronze Membership Medal will be as I would like to have one.

Very truly yours,

Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 19th together with check for five dollars to cover associate membership dues for 1921 has just been received. Thank you very much.

In response to your question as to how much a bronze membership medal would cost, I beg to state that the amount would be $5.02. We should be very glad to have your order. The added cost is due to the engraving which varies with each individual's name.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your order of one bronze Choate medal. I beg to advise that the envelope reached ^{us} here unsealed containing your order only. I trust that the absence of a cheque was an omission on your part and that it was not lost in transit.

Very truly yours,

New York City, N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter of April 12th, informing me that you received my letter asking for a bronze Choate medal with the envelope unsealed and no check enclosed therein.

I beg to state that it was an oversight on my part, having mailed the letter in a hurry without attending to completing it, and so I enclose my check for $5.00 herein.

Again thanking you for calling my attention to the fact that I mailed the letter without sealing the envelope, I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,

Ernst C. Schmidt
